

Consideration on the Name of Eastern Sea of the Korean Peninsula

Kun Sop Choe

(Captain, Hydrographic Department, D.P.R. of Korea)

1. The historical circumstances under which name the Eastern sea of Korean Peninsula was miswritten as “Sea of Japan”.
2. The origin and course of change of the Eastern Sea of the Korean Peninsula investigated historically on the old documents & maps of our country.
3. The name Eastern Sea of Korean Peninsula ascertained on the maps of several foreign countries.
4. The circumstance under which the name Eastern Sea of our country was changed into “Sea of Japan”, differently from its original name on the old Japan maps.
5. The consideration on the principal defining the sea naming & the international ruler & customs on the INT charts & IHO publications, “Limits of Ocean & Sea”.
6. The injustice of the name “Sea of Japan” expressed arbitrarily to the items of IHO technical resolution on the geographical name of chart.